

Intro to Special Needs Planning

Thursday, March 23, 2023

7:00 PM | Wright Memorial Public Library Community Room

Attorney Kim Estess of O'Diam & Estess Law Group will present "Intro to Special Needs Planning." During this program, we will discuss estate planning considerations that impact every family with a special needs individual. Topics will include a look at the difference between powers of attorney and guardianships, an overview of the guardianship process, and a discussion of the different types of special needs trusts.

"A goal without a plan is just a wish."

This activity is not school-sponsored nor affiliated with Oakwood Schools. Permission to advertise, distribute or display information does not imply agreement of its contents by either the administration of the school, the Superintendent or the Board of Education.

Antoine De Saint-Exupery